14. Basic Payment Scheme

- 14.1 The Property is not subject to any BPS entitlements and is not sold with an entitlements.

15. Expert determination

- 15.1 An Expert is a person appointed in accordance with this clause to resolve a dispute that arises out of or in connection with clause 14, Where the dispute relates to accounting, the matter shall be determined by an independent chartered accountant with relevant experience and any other matter shall be determined by an independent person with relevant experience from the panel as appointed by the Chair for the time being of the Agricultural Law Association, the President for the time being of the Central Association of Agricultural Valuers or the President for the time being of the Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors with relevant experience.
- 15.2 The Seller and the Buyer shall agree on the appointment of the Expert and shall agree with the Expert the terms of the Expert's appointment.
- 15.3 If the Seller and the Buyer are unable to agree on an Expert or the terms of the Expert's appointment within seven days of either party serving details of a suggested expert on the other, either party shall then be entitled to request the Chair for the time being of the Agricultural Law Association, the President for the time being of the RICS or the Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales (as the case may be depending on the nature of the dispute) (President) to appoint the Expert and to agree with the Expert the terms of the Expert's appointment.

- 15.4 The Expert is required to prepare a written decision and give notice (including a copy) of the decision to the Seller and the Buyer within a maximum of three months of the matter being referred to the Expert.
- 15.5 If the Expert dies or becomes unwilling or incapable of acting, or does not deliver the decision within the time required by this clause then:
- (a) either the Seller or the Buyer may apply to the Chair for the time being of the Agricultural Law Association, the President for the time being of the Central Association of Agricultural Valuers or the President for the time being of the Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors to discharge the Expert and to appoint a replacement Expert; and
  - (b) this clause shall apply to the new Expert as if they were the first Expert appointed.
- 15.6 The Seller and the Buyer are each entitled to make submissions to the Expert and will provide (or procure that others provide) the Expert with such assistance and documents as the Expert reasonably requires for the purpose of reaching a decision.
- 15.7 To the extent not provided for by this clause, the Expert may use reasonable discretion to determine such other procedures to assist with the conduct of the determination as the Expert considers just or appropriate, including (to the extent the Expert considers necessary) instructing professional advisers to assist the Expert in reaching a determination.
- 15.8 The Seller and the Buyer shall with reasonable promptness supply each other with all information and give each other access to all documentation and personnel and/or things as they may each reasonably require to make a submission under this clause.
- 15.9 The Expert shall act as an expert and not as an arbitrator. The Expert shall determine the dispute, which may include any issue involving the interpretation of any provisions of this Contract, the Expert's jurisdiction to determine the matters and issues referred to the Expert and/or the Expert's terms of reference. The Expert's written decision on the matters referred to the Expert shall be final and binding on the parties in the absence of manifest error or fraud.
- 15.10 The Seller and the Buyer shall each bear their own costs in relation to the reference to the Expert. The Expert's fees and any costs properly incurred by the Expert in arriving at a determination (including any fees and costs of any advisers appointed by the Expert) shall be borne by the Seller and the Buyer equally or in such other proportions as the Expert shall direct.
- 15.11 All matters concerning the process and result of the determination by the Expert shall be kept confidential among the parties and the Expert.
- 15.12 Each party shall each act reasonably and co-operate to give effect to the provisions of this clause and otherwise do nothing to hinder or prevent the Expert from reaching a determination.

16. Searches

- 16.1 The Buyer will be required to pay the costs incurred by the Seller in relation to the Searches carried out on the Property.

17. Entire agreement

- 17.1 This Contract and any documents annexed to it constitute the whole agreement between the parties and supersede all previous discussions, correspondence, negotiations, arrangements, understandings and agreements between them relating to their subject matter.
- 17.2 The Buyer acknowledges that in entering into this Contract and any documents annexed to it the Buyer does not rely on, and shall have no remedies in respect of, any representation or warranty (whether made innocently or negligently) other than those:
- (a) set out in this Contract or the documents annexed to it; or
  - (b) contained in any Written Replies.
- 17.3 Nothing in this clause shall limit or exclude any liability for fraud.
- 17.4 Condition 10.1 is varied to read, "If any plan or statement in the contract, or in Written Replies, is or was misleading or inaccurate due to any error or omission, the remedies available are as follows..."
- 17.5 This Contract may be signed in any number of duplicate parts all of which taken together will on exchange constitute one contract.

18. Joint and several liability

- 18.1 Where the Buyer comprises more than one person, those persons will be jointly and severally liable for the Buyer's obligations and liabilities arising under this Contract. The Seller may take action against, or release or compromise the liability of, or grant time or other indulgence to, any one of those persons without affecting the liability of any other of them.
- 18.2 Where the Seller comprises more than one person, those persons will be jointly and severally liable for the Seller's obligations and liabilities arising under this Contract. The transferor must execute this transfer as a deed using the space opposite. If there is more than one transferor, all must execute. Forms of execution are given in Schedule 9 to the Land Registration Rules 2003. If the transfer contains transferee's covenants or declarations or contains an application by the transferee (such as for a restriction), it must also be executed by the transferee.

If there is more than one transferee and panel 10 has been completed, each transferee must also execute this transfer to comply with the requirements in section 53(1)(b) of the Law of Property Act 1925 relating to the declaration of a trust of land. Please refer to Joint property ownership and practice guide 24: private trusts of land for further guidance.

Examples of the correct form of execution are set out in practice guide 8: execution of deeds. Execution as a deed usually means that a witness must also sign, and add their name and address.

Remember to date this deed in panel 3.

WARNING

If you dishonestly enter information or make a statement that you know is, or might be, untrue or misleading, and intend by doing so to make a gain for yourself or another person, or to cause loss or the risk of loss to another person, you may commit the offence of fraud under section 1 of the Fraud Act 2006, the maximum penalty for which is 10 years' imprisonment or an unlimited fine, or both.

Failure to complete this form with proper care may result in a loss of protection under the Land Registration Act 2002 if, as a result, a mistake is made in the register.

Under section 66 of the Land Registration Act 2002 most documents (including this form) kept by the registrar relating to an application to the registrar or referred to in the register are open to public inspection and copying. If you believe a document contains prejudicial information, you may apply for that part of the document to be made exempt using Form EX1, under rule 136 of the Land Registration Rules 2003.
